

Julia Oswald

Career Objective

To build a long-time career as a math teacher utilizing my drive, devotion, and passion towards life time learning in the classroom.

Education

Central Methodist University
Mathematics with Secondary Education Teaching Certification
Completion Date: May 2016

Central Methodist University
Master of Science in Mathematics
Completion Date: July 2019

Related Course Work

College Algebra
Calculus I, II, III
Elementary Statistics
Modern and Abstract Algebra
Mathematical Statistics
Proof in Mathematics
Complex Analysis
Modern Algebra

Matrix and Linear Algebra
Discrete Mathematics
History of Mathematics
College Geometry
Topology
Real Analysis
Numerical Analysis

Teaching Experience

Student Teacher

Fayette High School 1/2016-5/2016
Taught Fayette High school students algebra, geometry, and calculus. Work with students on various mathematical problems and reasoning.

Classroom Teacher

Staley High School 8/2016-Present
Taught Staley High School students coursework in Algebra 1, Algebra 2, Geometry, College Algebra, College Precalculus, and College Calculus 1. Integrate technology into classroom learning and work with students on critical thinking skills.

Dual Credit Teacher

Metropolitan Community College/Staley High School 8/2019-Present
Rockhurst University/Staley High School
Taught students coursework in College Algebra for Dual Credit through MCC. Taught students coursework in College Precalculus and College Calculus 1 through Rockhurst University. Help prepare students for college level classes.

Head Volleyball Coach

Staley High School 8/2016-5/2020
Taught athletes fundamentals of volleyball and game play as well as characteristics of citizens with good character.